

COURSE CONTENT:

"I thought this was the best in-house course I've been to! Content was obviously relevant to lawyers, format was both effective and personal, and it also provided an excellent way of getting to know other participants in the group." Stephen O'Gorman.

"I thought the course was brilliant. Rather unusual and unexpected "philosophy" behind the content, but very impressive and effective. Thoroughly recommended. Thank you." Susan Lever

APPLICATION OF NEW SKILLS:

What aspects of the course will you be able to use in your work?

"All aspects." Maria Nicolof

"Constantly referring back to [the] message you are trying to convey in giving a speech and considering whether you are projecting that message in the best possible way." Keren Davies

Confidence to speak in front of other professionals whether in court or otherwise." Kirralee Sanders

"Most aspects - planning and presentation of ideas occur on a daily basis." Anon.

"Presentation skills in court, for client meetings/seminars and in-house presentations." Stephen O'Gorman

"It gave you a different way of looking at public speaking - through the whole parcel giving thing." Neroli Butt

"Melissa's central theme was working out precisely what message you wish the audience to take away from the presentation. That was valuable." Keiran Breckenridge

"I think it will have a broad application speaking at a group meeting, in court, at social functions and generally." Susan Lever

ADDITIONAL FEEDBACK:

"Particularly enjoyed personal sessions! Great!" Kirralee Sanders

"Excellent course - Melissa was great - I'd recommend it to others." Maria Nicolof

"Very good - more advanced version of Toast Masters - addresses the real issues involved in public speaking! Fantastic!" Kirralee Sanders.

"I thought Melissa was an excellent person to give this course." Stephen O'Gorman

"Everyone gave interesting speeches." Keiran Breckenridge
