

WATER DAUGHTER by Sean Monro
Directed by Melissa Bruce for Griffin Theatre

“And the direction by Melissa Bruce orchestrates the frenzied but futile activity, establishing and building a laughable but sinister absurdity.”

Bob Evans – Sydney Morning Herald

“Director Melissa Bruce has transferred the play’s linguistic strengths which include many arresting images, into compelling action and a lively, light production.”

Ken Healey – Sun Herald